

2015 COPA AMÉRICA MATCH-UPS ANNOUNCED EXCLUSIVELY ON BEIN SPORTS

International Sports Network to Broadcast Exclusive Coverage for One of the Most Anticipated Tournaments of the Year

MIAMI, FL – November 24, 2014 – beIN SPORTS, the international sports network, announced the match-ups for the 2015 Copa América tournament live from Viña del Mar, Chile. Exclusive coverage of the draw on beIN SPORTS and beIN SPORTS en Español included the teams who will face off in the opening phase of the tournament featuring 10 South American CONMEBOL countries, plus invited nations Mexico and Jamaica.

"We are thrilled to be the exclusive provider of the 2015 Copa América tournament in both English and Spanish, across all platforms and devices," said Yousef Al-Obaidliy, Deputy CEO of beIN Media Group. "Copa América is among the most viewed and popular soccer events for fans worldwide. In the U.S. specifically, we will provide original content and coverage showcasing the best selected teams for true soccer fans in their preferred language and anywhere they would like to watch it."

The 44th edition of the competition kicks off with Chile against Ecuador in Santiago, Chile, on Thursday, June 11, 2015 with the final group matches scheduled for Sunday, June 21. The knockout round begins on Wednesday, June 24 ahead of the final on Saturday, July 4. Veteran commentators will provide play-by-play commentary along with player analysis and predictions.

The 12 countries were split into three groups of four for the opening phase of the 2015 tournament and below you'll find the exciting match-ups:

- Group A: Chile (Host), México, Ecuador, Bolivia
- Group B: Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Jamaica
- Group C: Brazil, Colombia, Peru, Venezuela
